

Applications Process for San Juan County Probate Judge

As a result of the resignation of the Honorable Stacey Biel from her position as San Juan County Probate Judge of San Juan County, the Board of County Commissioners is soliciting applications for that position. Applicants must be residents of San Juan County, New Mexico. Interested parties should submit the following:

1. A letter of interest setting forth the individual's qualifications to serve as Probate Judge as well as a summary of relevant experience with the New Mexico Probate Code.
2. A statement that the individual has no felony convictions.
3. A statement that the individual will comply with the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Governmental Conduct Act.
4. A resume showing all relevant work experience and any professional licenses held. (A license to practice law is not required to hold the position.)
5. Provide a copy of San Juan County voter registration

The Commission has determined that all applications should be received by December 11, 2020. The Commission hopes to make an appointment during its December 15, 2020 meeting. Applicants may be requested to present before the Commission during that meeting. If permitted, personal attendance may be requested. However, if attendance is not permitted by the current Public Health Order, applicants may be invited to attend by WebEx.

Please forward your application containing the information set forth above together with telephone number, mailing address, and email address, via email or U.S. mail, to:
